NOTIFICATIONS

New Delhi, the 5th November 1962

G.S.R. 1466.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) read with sub-section (2) of section 4 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1961 (23 of 1961), the Central Government hereby declares issue No. 41, dated the 12th October, 1962, of the periodical entitled "Peking Review", published by Peking Review Pal Wan Chuang, Peking (37), China and printed in the People's Republic of China, and every copy of the said issue and all other documents containing copies, reprints and translations of, or extracts from, the said issue to be forfeited to the Government on the ground that a sketch map and an article entitled "Some Questions to the Indian Authorities" contained in the said issue, the publication of which is punishable under section 2 of the said Act, question the territorial integrity and frontiers of India in a manner which is likely to be prejudicial to the interests of the safety and security of India by reason of the depiction in the sketch map of the McMahon Line as illegal and of the traditional customary boundary line between China and India as being south of the McMahon Line and by reason of the allegation in the article that India has occupied vast tracts of Chinese territory and is continuing to nibble away Chinese territory.

[No. 4/36/62-Poll(I).]

G.S.R. 1467.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) read with sub-section (2) of section 4 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1961 (23 of 1961), the Central Government hereby declares issue No. 42, dated the 19th October, 1962, of the periodical entitled "Peking Review", published by Peking Review Pal Wan Chuang, Peking (37), China and printed in the People's Republic of China, and every copy of the said issue and all other documents containing copies, reprints and translations of, or extracts from, the said issue to be forfeited to the Government on the ground that an article entitled "Mr. Nehru Should Pull Back From the Brink" contained in the said issue, the publication of which is punishable under section 2 of the said Act, questions the territorial integrity and frontiers of India in a manner which is likely to be prejudicial to the interests of the safety and security of India by reason of the allegation in the article that Indian troops have intruded into Chinese territory and are nibbling away at it and that the McMahon Line is illegal.
